

Bournemouth University

The AIA Professional Accountancy (that is to say membership) Qualification is accepted as equivalent to a first degree for entry purposes onto the MBA programme at Bournemouth University. Individual applicants can also apply for credit against specific units such as Accounting and Finance, Business Context, Information Systems and Managing People.

Bournemouth University Business School offers a part-time MBA at its city centre site. The course offers flexible modes of attendance that enable candidates to complete the programme in two and a half to three years. Now in its tenth year, the Bournemouth MBA has a reputation for developing management competence and is appropriate for managers from both the public and private sectors. Much of the learning takes place in small groups and the final year units encourage participants to translate theory into practice through consultancy activities and the MBA project.

For further information contact: Stewart Dickinson, Bournemouth University, The Business School, Bournemouth House, Christchurch Road, Bournemouth, Dorset, BH1 3LG, UK, Tel: +44 (0)1202 524 111, Fax: +44 (0)1202 298 321, E-mail: business@bournemouth.ac.uk

Brunel University

A university since 1966, Brunel is renowned for its combination of academic learning and practical application across its entire range of courses, and has extensive and rewarding links with industry and commerce. The Brunel MBA is a flexible, modular programme, offering the option of changing between full, part-time and distance learning modes if job demands or personal circumstances require. Following a core section on Foundations of Business and Management, students are able to pursue specialist pathways in Information Management, Managing for the Future or Strategic Accounting and Finance. Further specialisms will be added progressively, drawing specialist teaching support from across the whole of the University's broad spectrum of expertise.

For further information contact: Pauline Seston, MBA Administrator, Brunel Graduate Business School, Brunel University, Uxbridge, Middlesex, UB8 3PH, UK, Tel: +44 (0)1895 203 064, Fax: +44 (0)1895 203 075, E-mail: Pauline.Seston@brunel.ac.uk

University of Central Lancashire

The University of Central Lancashire has a strong commitment through its mission statement to provide opportunities for access to higher education. Lancashire Business School is a major international centre for postgraduate management education and development. The Lancashire MBA aims to provide you with an experience which will prove to be of intrinsic worth to you both personally and professionally. The MBA will develop your understanding and skills and enhance your professional/managerial capabilities and prospects, and make positive and valued contributions to organisational performance.

For further information contact: Roger Armstrong, Department of Management Development, University of Central Lancashire, Preston, PR1 2HE, UK, Tel: +44 (0)1772 894 712, Fax: +44 (0)1772 892 912, E-mail: management@uclan.ac.uk

University of Greenwich

The University of Greenwich has over 17,000 undergraduate and postgraduate students. The University is located 8km from the centre of London and is ideally positioned to provide high quality education in the stimulating atmosphere of this world famous city. The MBA courses are well established at the University and provide students with the opportunity to specialise in Finance or Marketing subjects while still learning about more general aspects of management. The programmes also offer the opportunity for students to study partly in other European universities and to work closely with partnership businesses, solving their current management challenges.

For further information contact: Robert Mayor, Senior Lecturer, Business Strategy Subject Group, The Business School, University of Greenwich, Island Site, Wellington Street, Woolwich, SE18 6PF, UK, Tel: +44 (0)181 331 9462, Fax: +44 (0)181 331 9005, E-mail: r.j.mayor@gre.ac.uk

Henley Management College

AIA Members are exempt from the Managing Financial Resources assignment in Part Two of the MBA.

Henley Management College is the oldest independent management college in Europe, offering a range of management development programmes. Its qualification programmes lead to the award of Master of Business Administration, Doctor of Business Administration, Master of Philosophy and Doctor of Philosophy. The College is set in 30 acres of attractive park land on the banks of the River Thames.

For further information contact: Alison Gale, Academic Registrar, Henley Management College, Greenlands, Henley-on-Thames, Oxon, RG9 3AU, UK, Tel: +44 (0)1491 571 454, Fax: +44 (0)1491 571 635

Heriot-Watt University

The AIA professional accountancy qualification is awarded exemptions from the Accounting and Quantitative Methods modules.

Heriot-Watt University is a leading university and Edinburgh Business School (EBS) is its graduate school of business. EBS offers its MBA by a range of study modes: full-time, part-time, consortium and distance learning, and students can change modes at any time. The distance learning programme was launched in 1990 and is the only MBA designed to be wholly taught in the distance mode with no need for live teaching. It has attracted an active worldwide student body of around 7,000 students, and its success led to the University winning the Queen's Award for export Achievement in 1994.

For further information contact: Keith Lumsden, Director, Edinburgh Business School, Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh, EH14 4AS, UK, Tel: +44 (0)131 451 3090, Fax: +44 (0)131 451 3002, E-mail: enquiries@ebs.hw.ac.uk

University of Hertfordshire

The AIA Professional Accountancy (that is to say membership) Qualification would normally be regarded as equivalent to degree standard for the purpose of admission onto the MBA programmes at the University.

The University of Hertfordshire is one of Britain's premier new universities attaining one of the highest scores in the sector in the last Research Assessment Exercise. The Business School delivers three MBA programmes: Executive MBA, aimed at ambitious graduates with more than three years experience of a management role; MBA, aimed at more recent graduates and International MBA, aimed at recent graduates in business related subjects who wish to broaden their skills in managing business operations.

For further information contact: Dr Dorothea Noble, Director of MBA Programmes, Business School, University of Hertfordshire, Hertford Campus, Mangrove Road, Hertford, Hertfordshire, SG13 8QF, Tel: +44 (0)1707 284 000, Fax: +44 (0)1707 285 504, E-mail: D.Noble@herts.ac.uk

University of Hull

The University of Hull has established a strong reputation for the quality of its teaching and research. The School of Management is made up of two main academic departments; Management Systems and Sciences and the Department of Accounting and Finance. The School boasts a faculty of 40 academic staff. Elaine Leung, FAIA graduated from the University of Hull in July 1996 with an MBA in Investment and Finance. Elaine opted to study for the qualification through the Distance Taught Course, this enabled her to study in Hong Kong. The University of Hull lecturers visited Hong Kong to teach each of the 14 modules of the course.

For further information contact: Denis Scanlon, Course Leader, MBA Financial Management, Hull University Business School, Cottingham Road, Hull, HU6 7RX, UK, Tel: +44 (0)1482 466 394, Fax: +44 (0)1482 466 377, E-mail: D.M.Scanlan@hubs.hull.ac.uk

University of Newcastle upon Tyne

The AIA Professional Accountancy (that is to say membership) Qualification is accepted as equivalent to a first degree for entry purposes onto the University of Newcastle upon Tyne MBA programme, as long as candidates have in excess of four years work experience.

The University of Newcastle upon Tyne is one of the largest civic universities in the United Kingdom. As a traditional 'red-brick' institution, it can trace its history back to the last century, and it continues to uphold traditional values based upon research and academic excellence.

The Newcastle MBA is accredited by the Association of MBAs (AMBA). The School of Management's practical approach to management and academic scholarship ensures that MBA candidates are best equipped to meet the challenges of the future. The Newcastle MBA is a demanding and rigorous programme which makes individuals think, analyse and evaluate - very attractive skills for employers.

For further information contact Jayne Barrass, Postgraduate Office, Newcastle School of Management, Armstrong Building, University of Newcastle upon Tyne, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE1 7RU, Tel: 0191 222 5494, Fax: 0191 222 8131, E-mail: School.of.Management@ncl.ac.uk

Robert Gordon University

"Aberdeen Business School at Robert Gordon University is an ideal base for studying an MBA. The programme is accredited by AMBA, and the School enjoys excellent contacts with the many multi-national businesses which have operations in Aberdeen. These excellent contacts have helped us design a truly practically oriented MBA. Our staff of over 50 have excellent qualifications, research achievements and a wealth of business experience often at senior management levels. This allows us to support the teaching theory with examples drawn from current practice and the additional authority of first-hand experience."

For further information contact: Ms Debbie Butler, Postgraduate Courses Administrator, Aberdeen Business School, The Robert Gordon University, Faculty of Management, Garthdee Road, Aberdeen, AB10 7QE, Tel: +44 (0)1224 263 843, Fax: +44 (0)1224 263 838, E-mail: aberdeen.business.school@rgu.ac.uk

Sheffield Hallam University

Sheffield Business School, within Sheffield Hallam University, has a well established international reputation for the provision of education and development programmes in business and management. The full-time MBA has, since its inception in 1987, developed successful managers in the public and private sectors, from manufacturing to financial services in over twenty countries; it is supported by over 150 staff, and is one of the few to be accredited by the Association of MBAs (AMBA).

For further information contact: Ian Boraston, MBA Deputy Course Leader, Sheffield Business School, Sheffield Hallam University, Totley Campus, The Old Hall, Totley Hall Lane, Sheffield, S17 4AB, UK, Tel: +44 (0)114 253 2817, Fax: +44 (0)114 253 2980, E-mail: I.G.Boraston@shu.ac.uk

South Bank University

South Bank University is based in the heart of London; an inner city 'new' university, which combines a tradition of service to the community, with the benefits of a modern vocational curriculum and a commitment to technology of the 21st Century. The Business School is one of the largest centres of business education and training in the UK, with over 5,000 students and approximately 200 academic and research staff.

The MBA at South Bank is designed to build on the diversity of experience among participants, providing a foundation in the theory of management as well as the skills to put it into practice. A variety of study modes are offered, designed to give full and part-time students maximum flexibility in fitting their study in with other commitments. Students opting for the full-time MBA can choose specialisms in European or International Management.

For further information contact: Charles Fenech, MBA Course Director, South Bank Business School, South Bank University, Southwark Campus, 103 Borough Road, London, SE1 0AA, UK, Tel: +44 (0)171 815 7783, Fax: +44 (0)171 815 8280

University of Southampton School of Management

The University of Southampton School of Management is one of the top twelve research rated management schools in the UK and is internationally renowned for its work in the Accounting fields. The School runs two highly successful MBA programmes, one for Recent Graduates, and one for Experienced Managers.

The modular MBA is specifically designed for managers who already have at least three years relevant managerial experience as well as having demonstrated an ability to pursue a demanding and rigorous programme of study. Full-time and part-time students are taught together in ways which ensure that students can share and learn from the experience of others.

The MBA for Recent Graduates is designed to introduce graduates to the key issues and processes required by managers today. It is designed to encourage a breadth of knowledge in key management disciplines such as strategy, finance, marketing and Human Resource Management. The programme is available on a full-time basis only.

For further information contact: Mrs Jill Ingledow, Postgraduate Programmes Administrator, School of Management, University of Southampton, Southampton, SO17 1BJ, UK, Tel: +44 (0)2380 593 076, Fax: +44 (0)2380 593 844, E-mail: mbamail@soton.ac.uk

University of Strathclyde

The Strathclyde MBA was established in 1966 and can be studied by a variety of methods - Full-time (12 months), Part-time (three years, two evenings per week), Open Learning (studied from anywhere in the UK at a flexible pace) and Mixed Mode which combines modular face-to-face teaching with open learning. World-wide there are over 2000 students studying the Strathclyde MBA. As Scotland's top business school - teaching quality 'excellent', research rating of '5' - Strathclyde would welcome applicants with the AIA Professional Accountancy Qualification.

For further information contact: Melissa McCrindle, Business Development & Admissions Manager, Strathclyde Graduate Business School, University of Strathclyde, 199 Cathedral Street, Glasgow, G4 0QU, UK, Tel: +44 (0)141 553 6119, Fax: +44 (0)141 552 8851/552 2501

University of Sunderland

Students can study at the Business School's new award winning campus at St Peter's in Sunderland, or at outreach centres in Greece, the Netherlands, Macau, Malaysia and Saudi Arabia.

Programmes are designed to offer participants a high level programme of personal management development aimed at benefiting both the individual manager and, where appropriate, her/his employer, together with the option of undertaking specialist study in one or more of a number of functional areas of business.

For further information contact: Fiona Ratton, Sunderland Business School, University of Sunderland, St Peter's Campus, St Peter's Way, Sunderland, SR6 0DD, Tel: +44 (0)191 515 3127, Fax: +44 (0)191 515 3131, E-mail: fiona.ratton@sunderland.ac.uk

University of Surrey

The Surrey European Management School (SEMS) is part of the internationally renowned University of Surrey. SEMS offers a range of postgraduate courses in management and law via flexible modes of study: full-time, part-time or by tutor-assisted distance learning or a combination of modes. These courses are available at its Guildford Campus and also at the SEMS Distance Learning Centres in Athens, Hong Kong, Mauritius, Seychelles and Singapore.

For further information contact: Admissions Tutor, SEMS, The University of Surrey, Guildford, Surrey, GU2 5XH, UK, Tel: +44 (0)1483 259 347, Fax: +44 (0)1483 259 511, E-mail: sems@surrey.ac.uk

University of Westminster

The University of Westminster is a progressive and responsive metropolitan university in the heart of London. Tracing its origins back 150 years, it is characterised by its cosmopolitan community and high percentage of postgraduates and part-time students. The internationally recognised and AMBA accredited MBA is an advanced management qualification. It will help you to prepare for a career at senior management level and to understand and contribute towards your organisation's strategic position and development as it moves into the next century. The programme takes two years to complete part-time (one year full-time), and can be studied at either the Westminster Business School at West End or the Harrow Business School at Harrow.

For further information contact: Harrow Business School, University of Westminster, Watford Road, Northwick Park, Harrow, HA1 3TP, UK, Tel: +44 (0)171 911 5000 Ext: 4470, Fax: +44 (0)171 911 5933, E-mail: barrata@wmin.ac.uk or mar05@wmin.ac.uk